

...a candymaker in Indiana, who combined symbols of Jesus, forming a 'J' for His name and a staff for 'The Good Shepherd.' With white candy for purity and the virgin birth, he then added red stripes for the blood of Jesus's suffering at the cross for us all.

Cherry Christmas!

'The Master Candymaker,' Who formed us, has shaped a most delectable treat.
It's filled with love to capture
one's heart,
and ready for unwrapping.
So don't wait till Christmas...
Open this card now, to the sweetest words that you'll ever read....
