

Happy
Valentine's
Day!

In Roman times, a priest named Valentine was sentenced to death and executed on February 14th, for ignoring a decree against uniting young people in Holy Matrimony.

He became the patron saint of lovers. The heart is one of the most common symbols of love.

Another legend is of an imprisoned Valentine, who fell in love with jailer's daughter. Before his death, he sent the first 'Valentine' to her, signed 'Your Valentine.'
